

ENCHANTED LANDS - THE MISSION

MARY MOORE AND STEPHEN MOORE

This juvenile book mixes important human values with science fiction, folklore, fantasy and Native American culture to create a story of stranded aliens in a modern day setting.

This book is a diverse tale of science fiction, fantasy and folklore mixed with important human values and notably set in New Mexico, home of the 1947 Roswell UFO Incident. Join Chilton Bear Claw, his best friend, Mac, and his retired racing Greyhound, Emily Running Deer, on a summer adventure of planetary proportions.

Chili, Mac and Emily have never seen a UFO, interacted with an alien or met animals that could talk. But this summer that will change as a talking owl chooses them to be part of the elite Zozoan Force - a mission that they and the reader will find fascinating and unforgettable.
